

Do you need a QLD disability worker screening check?

From 1 February 2021 all new employees of state funded disability service providers in QLD will need a clearance before they can start work.

Your employer will know whether you need a clearance. Please talk to them before you apply.

You can apply for a clearance online at www.workscreening.communities.gov.au. You can also fill in a paper form. Your employer can help you with this.

To find out more phone 1800 183 690 or visit www.workscreening.communities.qld.gov.au
